

Saturday at 5PM • November 3

Music Matters Series: Capricious Cembalo from the 17th Century
Featuring Dylan Sauerwald

This harpsicord concert will explore the clashing influences of France and Italy in Vienna in the late 1600s. While those influences were felt everywhere, nowhere can they be seen more starkly than Vienna. Two gifted composers epitomized the respective styles: Johann Kaspar Kerll, who had been a student of Girolamo Frescobaldi, and Georg Muffat, recently returned from study with Jean-Baptiste Lully. Tickets $10.

Friday from 5-7PM • November 9

Exhibit Opening: Women Photographers of Connecticut

Women Photographers of Connecticut was envisioned by Geneva Renegar in 2015 as a creative endeavor to collectively bring together all the talented female photographers of our Nutmeg State. It has been a vision fulfilled as the group now comprises well over 762 women (and growing) who are located through-out all parts of the state. This exhibit will run through the end of December. Suggested donation $5.

Saturday from 9:30AM-3PM • November 17
