ARTS & CULTURE

FRIDAY at 6PM • February 17
Conversations with a Masked Man
with John Hadden

Conversations with a Masked Man, by John Hadden, is a play about deception, "the game" (espionage), and rough filial love. It is a fifty-minute, two-character, solo performance based on his book, Conversations with a Masked Man: My Father, the CIA, and Me.

The play is performed in minimal style, to bring as intense a focus as possible to the relationship between the two men. The second act will involve audience participation for a "fishbowl" conversation. Two pre-designated members of the local community and three volunteer members of the audience speak about their own experience of family issues, and the personal ramifications of politics.

Suggested donation $5.

MUSIC MATTERS

SATURDAY at 5PM • February 11
Music Matters Concert: The Romantic Piano
featuring Stephen Porter

Acclaimed Boston pianist Stephen Porter returns to La Grua Center with a program of remarkable interest. Not only will he share with us two groupings of works at the core of the Romantic, by Chopin and Schumann, he will begin Music Matters' joyous, two-season celebration of one of the great compositional legacies of all time: the first book in our complete traversal of all 66 of Edvard Grieg's impassioned, evocative Lyric Pieces.

Suggested donation $10.

EVENTS ARE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.
