

FRIDAY from 5-7PM • January 12

Exhibit Opening: Lighting the Way, a Celebration of Stonington's Lighthouse

La Grua Center and Stonington Historical Society are pleased to present this exhibit celebrating Stonington's iconic lighthouse. Artwork in all forms will be on display, from paintings to photographs and fiber art and more! Exhibit will run through the end of February. Suggested donation $5.

WEDNESDAY at 6PM • January 17

World Comes to La Grua Series: The Trade, with Author Jere Van Dyk

Jere Van Dyk talks about his latest book, The Trade, which recounts the story of his journey back to Afghanistan and Pakistan to investigate his own kidnapping by the Taliban in 2008. In pursuing his kidnapers and the stories of the intermediaries and money men, he uncovered not just the story of his own abduction but the operation of what he calls the trade: the business of kidnapping. Join us for this riveting account of his experience. Suggested donation $5.

FRIDAY at 7PM • January 19

Cool Nights, Warm Jazz: Jazzical Fusion

Jazzical Fusion features Maestro Martin Piecuch on multiple woodwinds, pianist Regan Ryzuk, guitarist Richard Miller, and bassist Laurence Goldman. Martin Piecuch's "Jazzical Fusion" is a delightful potpourri of music from classical, samba, jazz and baroque, with a few other styles added in. It's a remarkable display of versatility, styles and hip arrangements. Join us for a jazzical evening! Tickets $15.

SATURDAY at 5PM • January 20

Music Matters Series: Arcadia Viols

Seventeenth-century Germany abounded in courts and cities with sumptuous musical establishments. Among the brilliant composers writing suites, dances famous to this day, and fine evocations of contemporary Italian and French style were Schein, Nicolai, Böhm, Kindermann, Froberger, Scheidt, and Hammerschmidt. Please join us for Arcadia Viols' memorable concert of this striking, songful, early Baroque music. Celebrated harpsichordist Frances Conover Fitch will join Arcadia's sonorous viola da gamba quintet. Tickets $10.

Visit our website to purchase tickets in advance.

Cash, check, or credit card accepted at the door. 18 and under admitted for free.
